January 7, 2020

Meeting was called to order. Chair Paul Hedden, Skipper Keith, Inez Brown Crouch, Mayor Bill Woolsey, Councilman Garrett Milliken and Town Administrator were in attendance.

There were three visitors. Boyscout Riley Silverman and his mother Tiffany Silverman. Also, Adam Barks with the "My JI - James Island, SC" Facebook page.

Old Business:

- Distributing James Island History Booklet. Commissioner Crouch noted she has distributed many to schools and churches and has received positive feedback. The Town "unveiled" the booklet at the Town Holiday gathering. It was noted the new JI Arts and Cultural Center will be a good place to house these booklets.
- Camp Road History Update - Inez gave a brief status update and working to wrap that up for Mr. Parlor.

Victory Day – Chairman Hedden gave an overview of Victory Day and noted he made an appearance and represented the Town's History Commission.

- Fort Johnson Remembrance Day, December 15, 2019 – Chairman Hedden noted that the first annual Remembrance Day at Ft. Johnson was a resounding success! There were 50-60 in attendance. It was discussed for the next celebration that it may flow better to only have one time slot for the speakers and one tour. It was also discussed to have this event possibly earlier in the fall, and another event in the spring. Sun. April 12th was discussed, however it was noted that is Easter Sunday and the following Sunday, April 19th may be better.

- Adam Barks shared the video he compiled with the group. He would work on sending that to the Town Administrator so she could post to their website.
