

History Council Agenda
Tuesday, February 3, 2023
Arts & Culture Center

6:00 PM – Meeting call to order

Old Business:

- Info re Historic Marker 10-90 COASTAL PATROL BASE #8 RIVERLAND DR. APPROXIMATELY ½MILE WEST OF INTERSECTION WITH GRIMBALL ROAD, JAMES ISLAND Where is it? Marker listed as existing 11/21 but not on site today. - Mike Corbo
- Have reached out to Ken Scarlett, the 33rd Regiment of Foot and Sean Willis with Colonial South. Re participation in October/November Remembrance Day (Note: Victory Day is scheduled for Sunday December 17, 2023)
- Have reached out to Col. William (Sonny) Leggett, Vice President for Communications and Marketing at The Citadel to have the Citadel's Reenactors make a presentation at First Shot Memorial Day (4/15/23)
- Will contact Henry Siegling – Washington Light Infantry
- Celebrate Juneteenth - Actual day June 13th, 1865 in Galveston, Texas. , now a national day of remembrance. Schedule for Sunday, June 11, 2023 at Pinckney Park. Celebration should include Arts & Culture Center, McLeod Museum, Fisherman's and Farmer's Lodge, SC African American Heritage Commission; Gullah-Geechee Heritage Corridor, representative of Pinckney family
Have reached out to all, awaiting response to schedule meeting.
- Status: June 10, 1862 Grimball Road Historic Marker
- Additional members for History Council
- Need recording secretary for Council meetings

New Business –

- Research history of James Island Airport off Dills Bluff Road.
- Historic Pathway next meeting 2/9/23 @1:00 pm Arts Culture Ctr begin Collecting and collating information for placement on Historic Pathway

Adjournment

Next Meeting March 7, 2023